After six years experience of the happy effects of this devotion among the faithful, and after conversing about it with learned and holy men at home and abroad, I gladly renew my approval of this little book, and recommend its wide circulation.

Promises of Our Lord

TO

BLESSED MARGARET MARY.

In Favor of Those Devoted to His Sacred Heart.

---

1. "I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life."

2. "I will establish peace in their families."

3. "I will console them in all their difficulties."

4. "I will be their assured refuge in life, and more especially at death."

5. "I will pour out abundant benedictions on all their undertakings."

6. "Sinners will find in my heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy."

7. "Tepid souls shall become fervent."

8. "Fervent souls shall advance rapidly to a great perfection."

9. "I will bless the houses in which the image of my Sacred Heart shall be exposed and honored."

10. "I will give to priests the power of moving the most hardened hearts."

11. "Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names inscribed in My Heart, and they shall never be effaced from it."

12. "I promise thee, in the excess of the mercy of My Heart, that its all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive communion on the first Friday of every month, for nine consecutive months, THE GRACE OF FINAL PENITENCE, and that they shall NOT DIE UNDER MY DISPLEASURE, nor without receiving their sacraments, and My Heart shall be their secure refuge at that last hour.*"

This last astonishing and precious promise is found twice in the life of the Blessed Margaret Mary, written by her contemporaries, and transcribed by them from her own autograph letters. (Euvres de la B. Marguerite Marie, Vol. I., p. 291; Vol. II., p. 159, 1st Edition; also, 2d Edition, Vol. I., p. 318; Vol. II., p. 196.)*

* Ni Sans recevoir leurs Sacrements.

It must be remembered, however, that the communion must be offered on the first Friday. The following Sunday will not suffice for it. Moreover, if this novena be, for any reason, interrupted, we must begin it again.

Tell this to your neighbor, or send for more copies of these papers and spread them.

THE GREAT PROMISE.

The last-mentioned revelation to the Blessed Margaret Mary contains a great promise. Eter-

---

*In narrating this last promise the B. Margaret begins, as she frequently does elsewhere, by the words: "It seems to me that He said to me, 'I promise, etc.'" This must be ascribed to her remarkable modesty and spirit of obedience. Mother Greyfiet, her Superioress, testifies (2d Edition, Vol. I., p. 159) that her very humble opinion of herself made her fear and doubt. She testifies also that she (the Superioress), though convinced that the revelations were genuine, told the B. Margaret not to speak positively of these extraordinary favors, but rather to preface them with such doubtful language as, "It seems to me," or "If I am not deceived." Vol. I., p. 160.

nity depends on a moment. If we end well, all is well. But our death may be sudden, or attended with delirium. Certainly the moment of death is too late to prepare. As, therefore, we do not know when or how we shall die, it is all-important to prepare ourselves, and to keep ourselves prepared for death. How eager then should we be to receive communion on the first Friday, since Christ promises that they who do so for nine successive months shall not die unprepared.

It is true that final perseverance can not be merited; but it can be obtained by prayer. "This gift of God may be won by supplication," says St. Augustine. For prayer will obtain for us divine grace; and, if persevered in, it will obtain for us a chain of graces to support us down to the moment of death. The grace of a worthy Holy Communion, which is the most effective method of supplication, may secure for us perseverance in prayer. This method is yet more certain when employed as Christ recommends; and we have the assurance from a favorite servant of our Lord, that He recommends a Communion on the first Friday of every month, for nine successive months, as a means for obtaining final perseverance.

In general, private revelations should be received with caution. But the Blessed Margaret Mary, to whom this great promise was made, has been elevated to the honors of the altar. Before beatifying her, the Church necessarily examined closely her works and her revelations. As a consequence, the action of the Church implies:

1. That there is nothing in these revelations opposed to Catholic faith, or to sound morals, or to Christian discipline.

2. That there are in them sufficient marks of truth to permit these revelations to be believed (fide humana), with that credit we yield to the best authenticated facts, and piously, prudently, without superstition, and to be read with edification by the faithful. Such is the opinion of some of the ablest theologians.*

The promise of eternal life as the consequence and reward of Holy Communion is not new. It is substantially the same that

*See Card. Franzelin div Trad. et Scrip., Thesis XXII.

Christ so often repeats in the Gospel of St. John, VI., "He that eateth My flesh and drinketh My blood hath everlasting life, and I will raise him up on the last day."—V. 55. "He that eateth this bread shall live forever."—V. 59. Neither in the gospel, nor in this present revelation, is the promise so absolute that we may sin with impunity after receiving. God will not force us into heaven, nor will he destroy our free will, but he can and will concede to the communicant, such graces as must render it more easy to overcome the temptation to offend Him. "This sacrament," says St. Bernard, "produces two effects in us. It diminishes the inclination to slight faults, and it takes away our consent to grievous sins."

The Council of Trent says: "Therefore our Savior, being about to depart from this world to His Father, instituted this Sacrament, in which He poured out the riches of His Divine love for men. * * * He wished this sacrament to be received as the spiritual food of souls, by which they who live the life of Him who said: 'He that eateth Me, the same shall live by Me,' are nourished and strengthened; and as an antidote by which we are freed from our daily faults, and preserved from mortal sins. He wished it also to be a pledge of our future glory and perpetual felicity."*

If this be true of the soul that receives this sacrament once, it is more true of him who receives it many times. He must receive greater and still greater graces; and Christ promises that those who in honor of His sacred Heart, perform this devotion, for nine successive months, shall receive such graces as will provide for every difficulty, if the heart be willing. Moreover, he who performs this devotion will probably not rest content with nine Communions. He will become a regular and frequent communicant. He will also more easily overcome his failings and increase his virtues, and his life will be a preparation for death.

To the Church at large the effect will be inestimable. This devotion has in many places doubled or even trebled the attendance at communion; and it would seem as if it were intended to bring back the faithful to the fervor of the early Christians, who received Holy Communion every day. Why did they go to Communion daily? Because Christ had said: "He that eateth My flesh and drinketh My blood hath everlasting life, and I will raise him up on the last day." "He that eateth this bread shall live forever."

So in this day, when charity has grown cold, the same Christ says: "I promise thee, in the excess of the mercy of My Heart, that its all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Communion on the first Friday of every month, for nine consecutive months, THE GRACE OF FINAL PENITENCE, and that they SHALL NOT DIE UNDER MY DISPLEASURE, nor without receiving their sacraments, and My Heart will be their secure refuge at that last hour.

1. Yo les daré todas las gracias necesarias á su estado.
2. Pondré paz en sus familias.
3. Los consolaré en todas sus aflicciones.
4. Seré su refugio seguro en la vida y en especial en la hora de la muerte.
5. Derramaré copiosas bendiciones sobre todas sus empresas.
6. Los pecadores hallarán en mi Corazón el manantial y el océano infinito de la misericordia.
7. Las almas tibias se volverán fervorosas.
8. Las almas fervorosas subirán rápidamente á gran perfección.
9. Bendeciré también las casas donde la imagen de mi Sagrado Corazón fuere expuesta y honrada.
10. Daré á los Sacerdotes la gracia de mover los corazones más endurecidos.
11. Los que propaguen esta devoción tendrán su nombre escrito en mi Corazón y jamás será borrado de él.
12. Te prometo, en el exceso de la misericordia de mi Corazón, que su amor todopoderoso, concederá á todos los que comulgaren nueve primeros viernes de mes seguidos, la gracia de la penitencia final; que no morirán en desgracia mía ni sin recibir sus Sacramentos, y que mi Divino Corazón se tornará en aquella última hora su seguro asilo.

8. Farei que as almas ferborosas se adiantem rapidamente à uma grande perfeição.
9. Abençoarei as mesmas casas onde a imagem do meu Coração será exposta e honrada.
10. Aos sacerdotes darei a graça de commovêrem os Corações mais endurecidos.
11. As pessoas, que promovêrem esta devoção, terão os seus nomes inscritos no meu Coração, para nunca sêrem d'elle apagados.
12. No excesso da misericordia do meu Coração, eu te prometto, que o seu todopoderoso amor concederá à todos aquelles, que commungārem em nove primeiras sextas feiras seguidas de cada mez, a graça da perseverança final e a de não morrêrem na minha desgraça, nem sem recebêrem os seus Sacramentos, pois que o meu Coração lhes será o refugio seguro n'essa ultima hora.

Promissiones Domini Nostri JESU CHRISTI factae B. Marg. M. Alacoque.

Þetta er það, sem Drottinn vor Jesús Kristur lofaði sælli Margrétu Maríu Alacoque að veita þeim, er tilbæðu hans hjarta.

1. Eg mun gefa þeim öllum, hverjum í sinni stöðu, nauðsynlegar myskunnargjafir.
2. Eg mun senda frið þeirra ætt og aðsetri.
3. Eg mun hugga þá í þeirra mótlætingum.
4. Eg mun vera þeirra örugt hæli í lífi og einkanlega í dauða.
5. Eg mun hella ríkulegri blessan yfir öll þeirra fyrirtæki.
6. Syndamennirnir munu finna í hjarta mér líknsemdarinnar lind, og af hennar óþrotlega djúpi munu þeir ausa.
7. Hinar hirðulausu sálirnar skulu verða vandlátar með sjálfar sig.
8. Hinar vandlátu sálirnar skulu brátt ná mikilli fullkomnan.
9. Eg mun enda blessa þau heimili, þar sem mynd míns allrahelgasta hjarta er til sýnis og í heiðri höfð.
10. Eg mun veita prestunum hæfilegleika til þess að láta hin þerúðarfylstu hjörtu klökkna.
11. Nöfn þeirra, er vilja breiða út þessa bænrækni, skulu verða rituð á hjarta mitt, og skulu aldrei þaðan afmást.
12. Hvattur af hinni óumræðilegu líkn míns hjarta heit eg þér, að hin almáttka ást hjarta míns mun veita þeim náð fullnaðar-iðranar, er reka hið heilaga erindi hvern fyrstan frjádag í níu mánuðum í sífellu. Þeir skulu ekki deyja í óblíðu við mig, né án þess að hafa þegið sakrament, og hjarta mitt skal vera þeirra örugt hæli á enni hinstu stund.

Lupaukset meidän Herralta Jesukselta Christukselta annetut autualle Margreta Marialle Alacoque niille avuksi, jotka ovat hänen jumalalliselle sydämellensä hartaat.

1. Minä tahdon antaa niille kaiken sen armon, joka on heille tarpeellinen heidän tilassansa.
2. Minä tahdon asettaa rauhan heidän perheesensä.
3. Minä tahdon lohduttaa heitä kaikissa heidän ahdistuksissansa.
4. Minä tahdon olla heidän vakava pakonsa elämässä ja erinomattain kuolemassa.
5. Minä tahdon runsaasti siunata kaikki heidän eteenottonsa.
6. Syntiset löytävät minun sydämessäni laupiuden lähteen ja äärettömän avaruuden.
7. Penseät sielut tulevat kiivaiksi.
8. Kiivat sielut pitävät kiirust' nostettaman suureen täydellisyyteen.
9. Minä tahdon myös siunata ne asunsiat, joissa minun pyhä sydämenin kuva on ylöspantu ja kunnioitetaan.
10. Papeille olen minä antava lahjan paatunnempiakin sydämiä pehmittämään.
11. Ne, jotka tätä hartautta tahtovat uloslevittää, saavat nimensä kirjoitetuksi sydämeenin, ja se ei pidä ikänänsä pois pyhkittämän siitä.
12. Minä lupaan sinulle, minun sydämenin ylönpalttisessa laupiudessa, että sydämenin kaikkivaltias rakkaus tahtoo antaa kaikille niille, jotka Herran ehtoollista nautitsevat joka ensimmäisenä periantaina, yhdeksän peräsukaan seuraavata kuukautta, sen lopullisen katuvaisuuden armon; he eivät pidä kuolla armottomuudessa, eikä myös ilman nautitsematta pyhiä sakramentejä, ja sydämeni pitää oleman heidän vakava pakonsa viimmeisessä hetkessä.
